Hillary's drama club was taking a trip fifty miles away to see a play in the city.

"You'll have to bundle up," said her mother. "It's twelve degrees outside."

Hillary knew just what to wear. First, long underwear. Over that, wool pants, a turtleneck, two wool sweaters, snow pants, heavy socks, a parka, a thick wool hat, two scarves, mittens, and finally, her Super-Duper Below-Zero Snow Walkers.

Hillary liked to be prepared.

HONK! HONK!
A van pulled up.
